The "Giving Tree"

Johnsonburg Presbyterian Center is known for its beautiful forest, a wide variety of incredible natural flora and wonderful hiking trails. In addition, it is a place where thousands have made life changing decisions throughout the years. The cross at the entrance of camp is made from a majestic oak tree that grew from an acorn on this property. Standing thirty feet above the ground at the high ropes course, reminds one of our closeness to God and warming ourselves around a wood fire emphasizes a tree's usefulness even after it has lost its bark and leaves and the sap no longer flows. It seems very appropriate then that this fundraising tool be in the likeness of a tree. The "Giving Tree" will be a lasting reminder of those who have financially supported Camp Johnsonburg either as a first time giver or long time giver, over and above their normal contributions. The funds raised by this tree will be used for the continuing operations of the camp and its programs.

Camp Johnsonburg

"To provide a place apart where all people can experience God's love within a welcoming Christian community"

In 1959, Johnsonburg Presbyterian Center was established to provide experiential Christian education in support of the Presbyterian Church USA in New Jersey. Johnsonburg today is a place where all people of all ages and abilities discover common ground, where rich and poor of means and spirit are valued equally, and where each is encouraged to take another vital step toward realizing oneness in Christ.

The Johnsonburg ministry is owned and operated by a Board of Trustees that derives its membership primarily from the seven New Jersey presbyteries, Presbyterian Church (USA). Operations are supported by gifts and fees (89%) and by the mission support of the seven New Jersey Presbyteries and the churches that make up those presbyteries. Capital improvements and endowments are sustained by the gifts of individuals, congregations and foundations.

The Johnsonburg Presbyterian Center is tax exempt under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Your donation to Camp Johnsonburg is tax deductible to the full extent of the law.

Thank you for your support of the Camp Johnsonburg ministry.
